

Introduction

> Welcome to the Stoa server of the NameOfYourWheelcore wheelcore where you can find other creative people who are into the arts and sciences. This server acts as the community forum of the NameOfYourWheelcore wheelcore where members of the wheelcore can gather together along with guests to learn more about Asveora, follow the various projects of AmzroStudios, play video games, participate in online events, and plenty more! Whether it be software engineering, digital illustration, installation art, industrial design, screenwriting, mechanical engineering, photography, videography, music composition, or one of the many other practices that exist under the umbrella of innovation and creativity, this wheelcore gathers together to share, discuss, and support it. It is also a great place to network with others, hangout, share cool projects that you are working on, and make new friends! Guidelines

> GS01.0001 Network Declarations

> NameOfYourWheelcore is a part of the Asveora network and therefore follows all of the statutes, rules, and regulations outlined in the constitution of Asveora which can be found here:

<<https://www.asveora.social/p/constitution.html>>

> GS01.0002 Age and Use of Service Requirements

> You must be at least 16 years in order to access this community as outlined by the Asveora Constitution. Anyone who is under the age of 16 years is prohibited from accessing this community and if you are discovered to be under the age of 16 years you will be promptly removed from this community and the wider asveora.social network.

> GS01.0003 Privacy Policy and Best Practices

> This is a publicly accessible Stoa server with standard verification of entry methods. Any content sent or actions taken within this server are by no means encrypted or obscured. Please keep this in mind as you participate within the community and practice diligent data security. Never post personal or private information relating to yourself, your Stoa account, or the state of another individual. Do not share phone numbers, emails, account tokens, licenses, card numbers, home addresses, citizenship records, passwords, IP dictionaries, or other sensitive information in any capacity for any reason.

> GS01.0004 Supported Languages and Communication

> English is the primary language spoken within this community. If you know a second, third, or fourth language, that is terrific! Being bilingual or a polyglot is amazing! However, we ask that you stick to speaking English in order to make community moderation and management easier. Phrases, quotes, or greetings sent in another language are allowed as long as the content of those messages are in alignment with the expectations of this community and they are not the bulk of your communication.

> GS01.0005 Data Deletion and Account Removal

> You are free to request that your account and its associated data be removed from the server at anytime for any reason. Do note that if any data associated with your account has been logged for disciplinary action within this community or is being used for an investigation by Stoa, you are entirely responsible for the management of your data and we cannot guarantee removal of the content.

> GS01.0006 The Administration Is Here for You

> The administration of this community is here to be a good friend and public servant. Your membership is highly valuable to this community and we want to ensure that you and everyone else who makes this community what it is has a splendid time. Do not be afraid to talk to figures of the administration or voice your concerns. Even when there are times that administrative figures ask for your compliance to keep everything running smoothly, they are doing so in your best interest and with the goal of keeping you as an appreciated member of the community. Representatives of the administration are instructed to practice grace, civility, understanding, de-escalation, and mutual respect. Those who are violating these virtues will be appropriately addressed. With great power comes great responsibility.

> GS02.0001 Copyright and Intellectual Property

> This community is in full support of the preservation of media, information, and contribution. Media shapes culture and culture shapes media. It is the collective expression of the masses. We believe that freedom of information and preserved access to culture is a human right. Files and digital content that are shared here in this community might not always be shared by those who have full copyright authority of said content. This is fine and expected for a majority of cases such as sending memes or sharing media from publicly accessible platforms. However, there may be times where you will be asked to remove a piece of content or directed to not re-share a piece of content if it has an elevated possibility of causing legal problems. Refusal to remove the piece of content or comply with directives will result in disciplinary action. This is to ensure that we can avoid problems with those who do not believe in the virtue of preserving culture and broadening access to information.

> GS02.0002 Modified Discord Clients and Expectations

> While modified Discord clients are a point of contention for Discord and are against the Terms of Service presented for the platform, they are allowed and supported here within this community unless they are being utilized to engage in malicious behavior or break the Discord client experience for other Discord users. Do not use client mods to disrupt the intended operations of this community and damage the experience of other community members. Modding stuff is cool! Ruining the fun for others is not!

> GS02.0003 Engaging in Harmful and Antisocial Behaviors

> Do not engage in harmful or antisocial behaviors that could damage the experience for other community members. This includes bullying, hazing, harassment, auto-messaging, auto-dialing, spamming, running bot nets, request raining, or any sort of disruptive behavior. Be welcoming, friendly, and supportive towards others. Discriminatory and exclusionary rhetoric or actions make for an incredibly hostile environment that goes against the foundational social values of this community.

> GS02.0004 Expectations of Discourse and Intellectual Honesty

> You are expected to engage with others in a civil and mature manner. Disagreements may arise and that is perfectly normal for any gathering of human beings. Please do not engage in behaviors such as the ones outlined in GS02.0003 or anything adjacent to them when participating in discussions. You will be expected to treat others with intellectual honesty and good faith engagement. Arguments and debates are expected to be arguments and debates. Not a hostile tirade of insults and screaming. Disagreements are not prohibited and do not fall under GS02.0003 unless the behavior of the disagreement becomes disruptive and damaging. To ensure a level of accountability, you are expected to stand by the words that you share here with others. Being a member of this community acknowledges that you understand that this is a public forum for discussion and thoughts. Gas-lighting, hiding messages, leaving disrespectful remarks, trolling, or engaging in anti-intellectual behaviors in any form is prohibited.

> GS03.0001 Advertisements and Self-Promotion

> We encourage you to share your work with us and connect with other members of the community. That is a big aspect of this community and it would be silly to discourage it. However, please make sure that when you are sharing advertisements for your work or promoting it in any way that may be categorized as an advertisement that you post within the designated areas for self-promotion. There may be specific cases that are the exception to this statute such as having a discussion with others about your work in relation to a broader conversation that is happening outside of those designated areas.

> GS03.0002 Third Party Services and External Activities

> You are responsible for any links that you send within this community and any content that links to external services. Sharing malicious links or content that is connected with malicious software or activity is prohibited and will lead to disciplinary action. Whatever you do outside of this community may qualify you for disciplinary action if it violates legal boundaries or has put the well-being of this community in jeopardy. Refer to GS02.0003 and GS01.0002 for commonly cited items.

> GS03.0003 Conversation and Content Sharing Practices

> Remember that you are responsible for the content that you share and the things that you say. Keeping this in mind, please take note that content that could be perceived as adjacent to mature themes such as violence, gore, or sexual innuendo should be properly spoiler tagged. Full-fledged pornographic material, extreme gore, or anything else that would have been fitting for Live Leak is outright prohibited from being shared anywhere in the server unless there is reasonable context such as playing a video game that happens to have mature themes. AI content must be marked as such and may only be posted strictly within the <#01KP493S1K3HEQ21HR2EX8VAWH> channel.

> GS03.0004 Participation in the “2meirl4meirl6convo” Channel

> 2meirl4meirl-space is a channel dedicated to those days when you’re not feeling great, personal struggles, and difficult topics that might come with a bit of gravity. Please do not use this channel as a marketplace for mental health products, proselytizing, or bootstraps soap boxing. We are real human beings expressing real problems and should be treated as such. You must be sixteen or older to engage with this channel. By participating in the channel you agree to be a good listener to others and understand that in some cases your solutions might lie in professional assistance. THINK before you type of course. Anything said in 2meirl4meirl6convo STAYS in 2meirl4meirl-space.

> GS03.0005 Acknowledgment and Agreement

> By participating in this community you agree that you have read and understood these statutes and guidelines as outlined in the messages of this Discord channel. Please confirm with the role reaction below that you will adhere to these tenets in order to become a member of the community.

Membership

> Membership Classes & Verification

> There are three classes of membership in this Stoa server since it serves as the community forum of NameOfYourWheelcore's wheelcore. These classes are Wheelcore Residents, Wheelcore Guests, and External Visitors. Wheelcore Residents are citizens of the Asveora network (known as Asveorans) who are registered to the NameOfYourWheelcore wheelcore while Wheelcore Guests are Asveorans from other Wheelcores and External Visitors are visitors who exist outside of the Asveora Network but are visiting. The verification questionnaire that is required to gain access to the community will help determine which class of membership you fall under.

> Public Access & Joining Asveora

> The status of this Wheelcore being open to External Visitors may change based on policies of the NameOfYourWheelcore wheelcore or the security status of the Asveora network. Said status can be found listed in the verification channel. Any verified external visitors already participating within the community prior to changes in access will still be able to interact within the community and treated just like guests and residents. This membership system of the Asveora network was built to allow for the general public to learn about Asveora and potentially become members. If you want to upgrade from being an External Visitor to an Asveoran or specifically an Asveoran that is a part of this Wheelcore, you will be guided through the steps of joining the Asveora network and then re-processed for verification of your new class.
